Prof. Asst. Dr. Zirije Hasani, serving as the Dean of the Faculty of Computer Sciences at the University “Ukshin Hoti” in Prizren, welcomed a delegation from the Municipality of Bingen, Germany, on Friday. The delegation included Thomas Fesser, Mayor of Bingen; Jurgen Port, an official; Annete Hammel from the SPD entity; and Arjeta Nezaj, who served as a translator. The Dean was also joined by PhD.c. Arber Beshiri, the Head of Teaching at the FCS.

This visit was a part of a broader engagement within the municipality of Prizren, highlighting the long-standing twinning relationship between Prizren and Bingen.

During the visit, Dean Hasani provided an overview of the University’s status, focusing on the achievements and challenges faced by the Faculty of Computer Sciences. Additionally, some students from the academic unit had the opportunity to showcase their work to the visiting delegation.
